The Prospects--The Starting of the Gins... The Financial Pall which Hangs over the Country-Debtors Urged to Face their Creditors ... Character More to be Prized than Silver and Gold.

The first days of September already give evidence of activity in the new commercial year, which begins September 1st.

The new goods are heginning to arrive at some of our stores, and other evidences of renewed activity are to be seen.

The wheels at the Enterprise Ginnery were storted vesterally, and ten or more bales were Lawson's Ginnery made its trial trip a few days earlier, and ginned and packed a bale for Mr. David W. Thomas, his being the first bale of the season. The indications are that we will have an

The indications are that we will have an early and quick movement of the cotion crow. It is said that the recent dry weather stopped the growth of the crop, and the hot sun opened the mature bolls. It is estimated that two-thirds of the crop is now ready for the hands of the pickers, which means a hasty gathering of an extremely short crop. The outlook from a business standpoint is most depressing, and those of our fellow citizens who have expended labor and money to produce the crop are already looking forward to results.

The one cheerful aspect is, the corn fields have yielded abundantly, and many of the best and most provident of our furners will have well-filled cribs—sub-treasuries, so to

The general district and dissatisfaction which has existed for two or three years among those who are engaged in the agricultural pursuits has not been without its effect, and its evil influence seems to have extended to the different branches of the financial world.

to the different branches of the financial world,
Capitalists who have loaned money, or advanced goods for the production of the crop are more or less anxious, and their own nervousness will extend to their factors. When financial circles are nervous and excitable the fact forebodes no good to anybody.

The persistent effort of the politicians will likely bring "dead sea fruit" to the country, and the people will suffer evil consequences.

At a time when confidence is most needed, and when we are least able to pay, the work of the politician, has placed the merchant, the factor, the banker, and other creditors in such position as to force them to make collections—and forced collections means distress.

Character is more valuable than cotton, mules and wagons.

Money weighed in the balance against character is trash, and the act of sacrificing character is trash, and the act of sacrificing character for the sake of a horse or a bale of cotton is unworthy of any decent man in Abbeville County.

DOAR'S TRICK WON'T WORK.

Tillman Disgusted with the Georgetown Dictator's Attempt to Force Himself on the People as their Sheriff-The Conservatives have Won and they will Enjoy the Fruits of their Victory.

News and Conirer. News and Conirer.

Columb A. September 3.—Special: Neither Governor Tillman nor Chairman Irby sanction the outrageous rulings of the would-be tyrant of Georgetown County, Sheriff Joslah Doar, It is very strange to see how in South Carolina such arbitrary and "Tom Reedish" practices can be attempted. It is, however only the continuation of the original purpose practices can be attempted. It is, however only the continuation of the original purpose of Mr. Doar to elect himself to the sherifialty with or without the votes of the freemen of that country. It will be remembered how Chairman Doar declined to accept the piedges of the Conservative candidates because they were filed at 10 o'clock, and not by 8 o'clock as he held they ought to have been, although he had purposely absented himself from his office so as not to have the piedges filed.

The Conservatives went into the primary believing in the faith of the people and the fairness of the executive committee. When the executive committee met to tabulate the election returns Chairman Doar ordered that the votes of only such candidates as had completed with his ideas ha counted although the the executive committee met to tabulate the election returns Chairman Doar ordered that the votes of only such candidates as had complied with his ideas be counted, although the committee at that time only had the right to count the vote and at a subsequent meeting hear protests. Chairman Doar said that he did not care what the committee did he would overrule it, and as long as he was chairman of the committee the Conservatives vote would not be counted. After the regular meeting, the official returns were tubulated and they showed that Walter Hazard, Conservatives candidate for Senator, Skinner, Conservative candidate for sheriff, and Smith, Conservative candidate for sheriff, and Smith, Conservative candidate for clerk of Court, had received majorities of the total vote, Mr. Hazard going in by 146 majority. "Dictator" Doar refused to have these votes tabulated, and in the Times, which he published, does not give the votes of the Conservative candidates for county offices. The announcement is signed by Secretary Detyens, but it is understood that his is a mistake, and he distinctly repudiates it as showing who are the nominees, but simply and the candidates.

Secretary Detyens, but it is understood that this is a mistake, and he distinctly repudiates it as showing who are the nominees, but simply as giving the votes of certain candidates. Mr. Detyens will, it is understood, support the will of the people and vote for the counting of the Hazard-skinner ballot.

To add to his arbitrary ruling Chairman Doar told Committeeman Sparkman that he positively declined to call any meeting of the committee to hear contests or protest although Mr. Hazard had filed a formal protest with Mr. Doar. The Consevative committeemen, however, adjourned the meeting until Tuesday, when the matter will be investigated. It is understood that the majority of the committee will favor fair play and Chairman Doar will be squeiched. If not, the Courts will be restored to.

This morning Governor Tillman, while talking over the matter, said that the "will of the people ought not to be overridden. The pledges were, I think, filed in ample time to show that the candidates intended to be loyal and to my mind it is a mere technicality and ought not to considered. I quite agree with Chairman Irby that the vote ought to be counted."

It is pretty safe to say that Walter Hazard

It is pretty safe to say that Walter Hazard will be the next Senator from Georgetown and that R. J. Donaldson is not "in it."

the result to those who are in financial strikes must be ruinuous indeed.

If the short crops continue from year to year, and we have no improvement in price, our agricultural interests will undergo a revolution, and there is no telling what may be the effect. Interest on money may go high, and property values may depreciate so much that the net earnings of the debtor class may be wiped out of existence.

It is well to face danger and to meet it squarely when it comes. Let no man forfeit his character for a bale of cotton. And let no man leave his creditors, but let him have the man that he owes, and do the best he can.

ELECTION OF COTTON WEIGHER.

an Effort to Deprive a Good

For a year or more Mr. G. C. Dusenberry has been the village weigher for all persons who did not patronize the depot scales.

When he entered the business he bought scales and made his arrangements to serve the public. His business on his farm has been arranged with that end in view, and as far as we have heard, his services in the past have been entirely satisfactory to everybody, and its fair to presume he is just as good a man to-day as he was when he was the choice of everybody.

It is said the action of the gentlemen who met in the Court House last Monday was prompted by a report that he had voted for Sheppard. That was the extent of his offending, it is said. Patriotic gentlemen could not stand this, and hence a few of them assembled together and elected a weigher of their own. This they had a perfect right to do. Any citizen in this country is at perfect liberry to choose his own weigher.

Further, it is the right of any citizen to set up scales and go into business whenever he feels so inclined, and we believe Mr. Dusenberry has the right to continue business at the old stand, where he will be sure to receive a liberal share of the public patronage. He has invested his money in scales, and has made his arrangements to do any weighing than may be offered, and he need not be discouraged because of either opposition or competition. A little competition is good for most of us, and we presume Mr. Dusenberry can fight it out on this line.

This thing of persecuting people on account of politics is a reprehensible practice, which must sooner or later be discontinued.

The verdict of the county is that Heath & Co. sell the best flour for the least money in town. Yau can get any grade from $3 per barrel up.

The majority decides that Heath's grocery store is the cheapest and best place in town to buy goods. The rush for flour, sugar, coffee, &c., is evidence of the fact. When Jesus comes the biggest part even of the Church will be surpsised.
